

FLOWER LIST—ST AIDAN'S

There are some dates available on St Aidan's Flower List. Please see Mrs Margaret Close, if you'd like to secure one.

ST AIDAN'S MOTHERS' UNION

During the month of May, the members, along with the church family have been collecting items needed for the

'MU Wash Bag Appeal'. These are given to the hospital chaplain to deliver to our four main hospitals for all emergency patients' use.

Please thank everyone for their generous donations in supporting our NHS.

*Many thanks
Barbara*

We extend our deepest sympathies to all who have been bereaved together with the assurance of our thoughts and prayers.

Dear all

Isn't it hard to believe that June is now upon us? Time goes by so quickly. This month we are very pleased to welcome some visitors who will be helping in the covering of our services.

On Sunday 2nd June, we have a guest at our United Service - Mr Johnny Beare of 'Growing Young Disciples'. As part of our growing partnership with this organisation, Johnny will be preaching and telling us a bit more about the work of GYD. We very much look forward to hearing what he has to say.

On Sunday 9th June, Mr Dave Armstrong - Diocesan Lay Reader in Down & Dromore will cover a service in St Simon's.

On Sunday 23rd June, Rev Gareth Campbell, curate in Christ Church Lisburn, will preach in St Aidan's, and then will cover the service in St Simon's.

We look forward to giving the usual 'Blackstaff Mission Area' welcome to all our visitors.

A farewell to Alison

After almost twelve years of serving St Aidan’s and St Mary Magdalene as Families’ Worker, Alison Shaw has made the difficult decision to move on from our parishes. She will be taking up a new role in a community-foodbank ministry called ‘The Larder’, based in East Belfast. We wish Alison all the best and every blessing in her new role, and would like to express heartfelt thanks to her for everything she has done for our parishes over this time.
